William Barry, 86
Dies in Davenport

William P. Barry, 86, a farmer all of his life in the Melrose area died Sunday morning at Davenport, where he had been the past several months.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Joe B. McGrath of Melrose and Mrs. Mike Kasper of Davenport, one son, William of Davenport, seven grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his wife, one daughter and eight brothers and sisters. In 1908, he was married to Mary Conway at Melrose.

Rosary will be said at the Humeston Funeral home at 8 p.m. Tuesday. Funeral services will be Wednesday at 10 a.m. at St. Patrick’s Church in Melrose with the Rev. J. J. Morrissey officiating. Burial will be at Mt. Calvary Cemetery at Melrose.

Source: Monroe County News, May 2, 1966 (0361_1_79)
~~~~~~~~~~~~~~
William Barry died in May 1966. Born August 2, 1879, Barry was 86 years old and lived in Melrose, IA.

Source: Social Security Administration