Arm Broken

Little Robert Carr had the misfortune to break his arm last week while playing with some little friends at his home in Melrose. While riding on a cart he fell catching his arm in the wheel and the result was a dislocation at the elbow and the bone broken. The doctor was called and reduced the fracture but the little fellow will carry his arm in a sling for some time. He is getting along, very nicely.

Source: Monroe County News, August 6, 1908 (0404_1_60)