

John F. Shehan

John F. Shehan, a very highly respected citizen of Tyrone, passed away at his home Tuesday morning. He had not been in good health for some time but his death came very suddenly and was a great shock to his family.

He was section foreman at Tyrone over a long period but was retired for some three or four years before his death.

He is survived by his wife, six children and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church at Georgetown Thursday morning. The pastor, Rev. I. J. Murphy, sang the mass of requiem and also gave the final blessing at the grave.

Source: Monroe County News, August 29, 1932 (050715_08)

~~~~~

John F. Shehan

John F. Shehan, a very highly respected citizen of Tyrone, passed away at his home Tuesday morning. He had not been in good health for some time but his death came very suddenly and was a great shock to his faintly.

He was section foreman at Tyrone over a long period but was retired for some three or four years before his death.

He is survived by his wife, six children and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral services were held from St. Patrick's church at Georgetown Thursday morning. The pastor, Rev. L. J. Murphy sang the mass of requiem and also gave the final blessing at the grave.

Source: Albia Union Republican, September 1, 1932